

GOLF COURSE UPDATE

"I want to thank all the members for another amazing summer season here at Red Wolf Golf Club." Tucker Keyes

Hopefully it was filled with a lot of birdies. One of the greatest parts of working here is the seeing people out enjoying the golf course. We strive every day to give you the best quality golf course that we can.

Every Season brings new challenges, whether it be training new seasonal employees each year on how to maintain a golf course, adapting to whatever weather is thrown our way, or accounting for the added maintenance required due to the increasing amount of people playing golf. During the summer months it is a nonstop fight with the heat to keep the course green. At the end of each season our crew takes time to reflect on how we can improve and give you an even better golfing experience the next year.

With the cool weather that October brings, we will be able start working on some of the projects that were put on hold through the summer. We are already turning our attention towards cleaning up the flower beds. We will be repairing all of the wet spots that were damaged during the summer. We will also, as time allows, be doing some work to the bunker on the right side of number three green. We have many other projects planned throughout the fall and winter to help improve the quality of the course and take it to the next level.

We want to remind you that it is very important that golf carts stay on the cart path when around the greens and tees, especially as temperatures get colder, to limit compaction and matting down of grass. Please remember to fix ball marks on the greens and fill divots with sand and seed. We love getting to see the community enjoy our wonderful golf course. If you have any questions or comments don't hesitate to stop me on the course or call me at the maintenance facility.

Thank You,
Tucker Keyes
